Importance of Digital Badge

To showcase your expertise

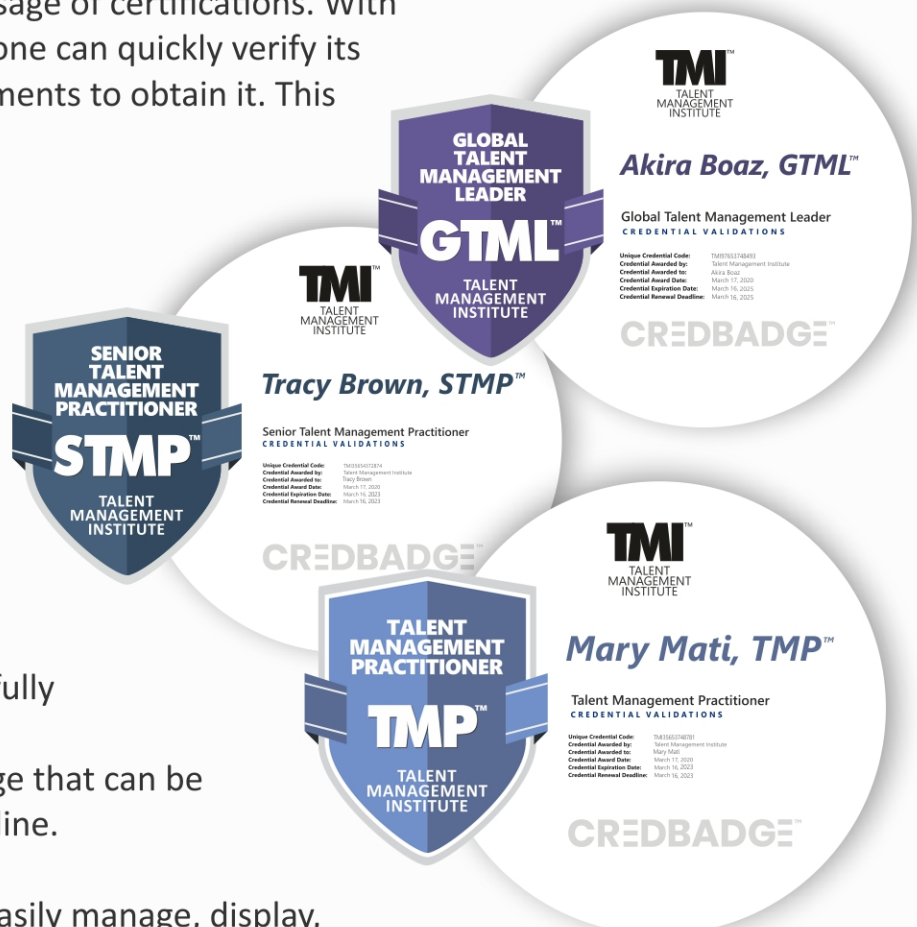

The Credbadge™ digital badging system allows you to showcase your professional accomplishments and communicate the significance of your credentials to a worldwide network of peers and employers. You can easily share your certification through email as well as popular social media platforms like LinkedIn, Facebook, and X. Your credential information can also be shared on your resume, job portals, and other professional networking sites, making presenting yourself in the best light easier.

Protect your hard-earned credentials from unauthorized usage

It has become increasingly common for individuals to falsely claim to have earned certifications, particularly on literature, websites, and physical certificates. As a solution, virtual credentials are gaining popularity as they prevent unauthorized usage of certifications. With a digital certification badge, one can quickly verify its authenticity and the requirements to obtain it. This contrasts with paper certificates, which cannot be verified instantly.

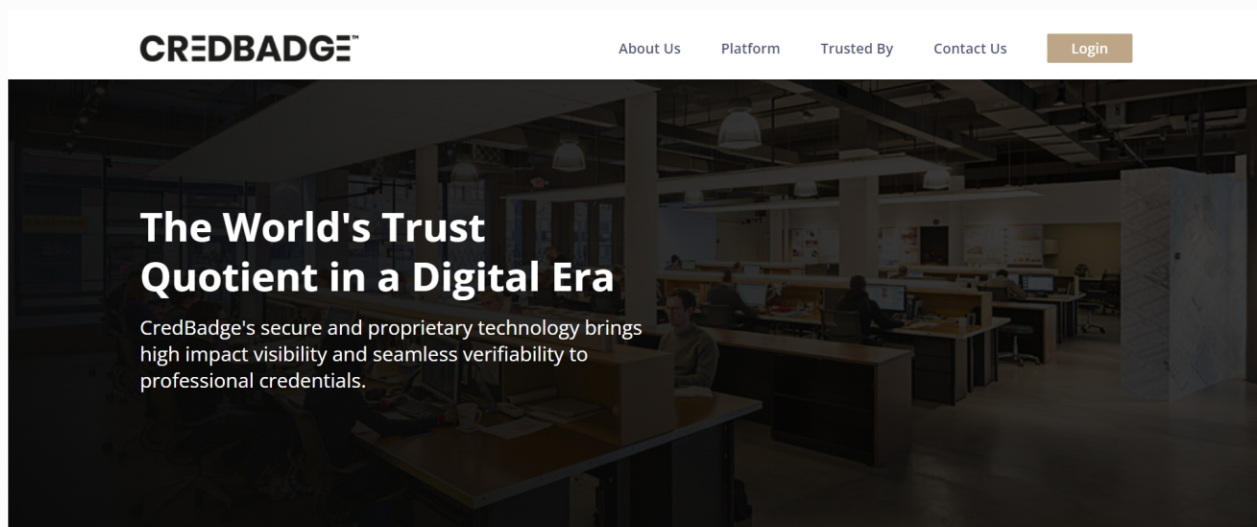

The Talent Management Institute has partnered with Credbadge™, a digital badging platform, to offer you a platform to showcase your verified knowledge and expertise to potential employers, colleagues, and recruiters. Once you successfully pass your certification exam, you will receive a digital badge that can be easily shared and verified online.

With Credbadge™, you can easily manage, display, and broadcast your digital badge to showcase your skills and certifications more effectively.

Share Your TMI Digital Badge on Social Media using Credbadge™

Step 1: Open your web browser and navigate to www.credbadge.com. Once you reach the page, click the "LOGIN" button at the top-right corner to proceed.

Step 2: Log in to your Credbadge™ account.

How to Display Your TMI Credential on LinkedIn?

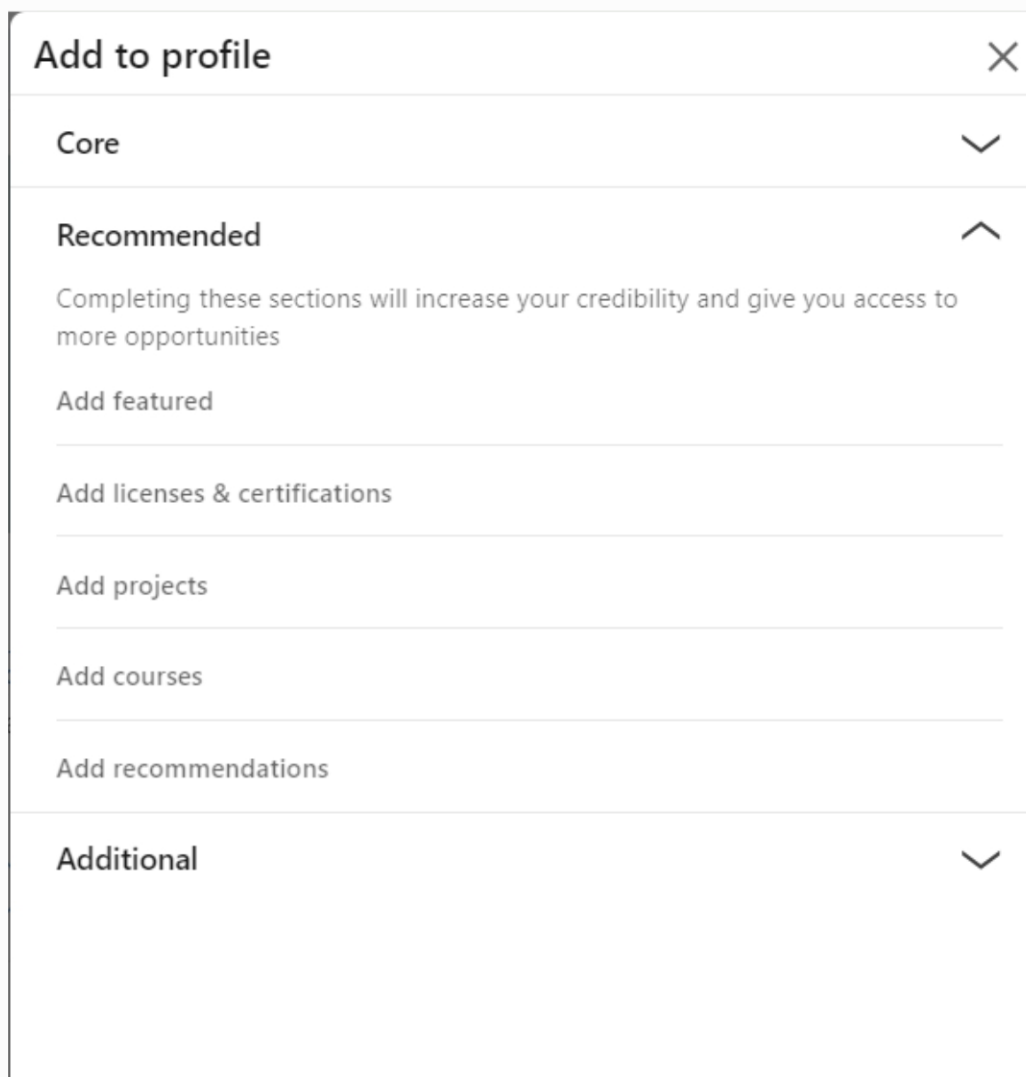

Step-by-Step Instructions

LinkedIn profile features a section called "Add licenses & certifications", designed to display credentials. This is the most suitable place to showcase your TMI credentials.

Step 1: From the home screen, click on your profile.

Step 2: After opening your LinkedIn profile, Select the "Add profile section" tab. A pop-up menu will appear with options to be added to your profile.

Step 3: In the "Add Profile Section" window, click on "Recommended", it will give the option to add "licenses & certifications".

Step 4 – Once you click the “Add licenses & certifications” button, LinkedIn will give you a new window to add certification details as appropriate to your status.

In the “Certification Name” field, enter the suitable reference to your status. For example, if you have met the requirements for the GTML™ certification, including passing the GTML™ certification exam, you may enter “Global Talent Management Leader”.

In the “Issuing organization” field, enter “Talent Management Institute”. Add the “Issue” and “Expiration Date” of your credential. In the “Credential ID” field, enter your unique credential code from your Credbadge™ account.

In “Credential URL” section, fill in the unique URL of Credbadge™ which you can copy from your Credbadge™ account.

Once your entry is complete, click on “Save” button and the credential will be added to your profile. You will find the added credential in “Licenses & Certifications” section in your LinkedIn profile.

How to Display Your TMI Credential on X?

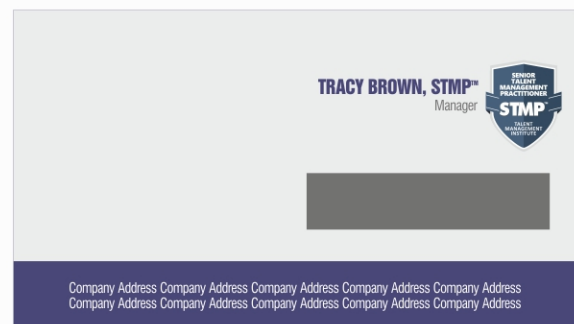

Updating your Bio

- Log in to your X account.
- Click on 'Edit profile'.
- Under 'Bio', add details about the credential that you have achieved from TMI.
- To showcase, you can also add your Digital Badge URL in your bio.
- You can also add your TMI designation to the profile section next to your name.

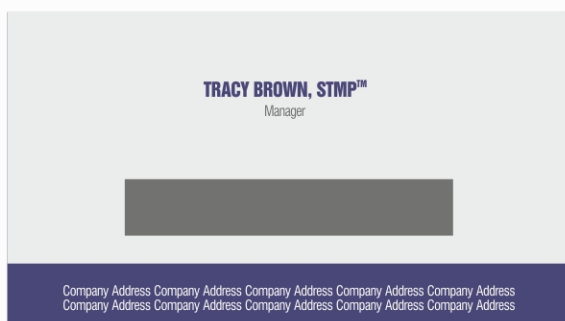

The image shows two screenshots from the X (Twitter) mobile app. The top screenshot is the 'Edit profile' screen. It features a 'Save' button in the top right corner. The profile picture is a circular image of a woman with blonde hair. The name field contains 'Tracy Brown - STMP™'. The bio field is highlighted with a blue border and contains the text 'Senior Talent Management Practitioner' followed by a URL: 'https://www.credbadge.com/credit/certified/123456789/'. The location field is empty. The bottom screenshot shows the resulting profile page. It includes a back arrow, the name 'Tracy Brown - STMP™' with '60 posts' below it, and the same profile picture. A large 'STMP™' badge is displayed, which reads 'SENIOR TALENT MANAGEMENT PRACTITIONER' and 'TALENT MANAGEMENT INSTITUTE'. An 'Edit profile' button is visible. Below the name is the handle '@Tracy Brown42774'. The bio is truncated to 'Senior Talent Management Practitioner' with a link to 'credbadge.com/credit/certifi...'. It also shows 'Joined December 2023', '270 Following', and '70 Followers'. At the bottom, there are tabs for 'Posts', 'Replies', 'Highlights', 'Articles', 'Media', and 'Likes'.

Displaying Your Credential on Your Business Card

- Confirm with your company's branding guidelines if third-party logos are allowed on your business card as many employers do not permit this.
- Verify if your organization permits 4-color printing of business cards. Note that the TMP™, STMP™ or GTML™ logo must be printed in full color, otherwise it cannot be used. If used, the logo should be no smaller than 0.307 inches in width and 0.502 inches in height and the business card size should be 88.9mm x 50.8mm.
- For optimal print quality, please use the .jpg logo file at the size provided or provide the .eps logo file directly to your business card designer/printer.

- If you are not allowed to use any logos on your business card, you can still mention your TMI credential with your name, as indicated below.
